

2026 International Summer School Provisional Programme

22 – 25 September 2026, Marseille

(Programme is subject to change)

Day 1 – Tuesday 22 September

Maritime sector in transition: political, technical and strategic analysis.

Experts

Luc Gillet, Engineer, expert and lecturer in maritime transport and energy transition, former Deputy Director of Maritime Transport at TotalEnergies

Christophe Lenormand, Interregional Director, Interregional Direction of the Mediterranean Sea

Ladislav Paszkiewicz, former USA Country Chair and CEO WDC Representative Office, TotalEnergies. Professor at TotalEnergies Professeurs Associés

Activity: Which eco-energy transition for 2040?

Day 2 – Wednesday 23 September

Financing decarbonisation: which levers are available to maritime stakeholders?

Experts

Anne Coroller, DGAMPA/STEN

Lorraine Weamaere, Expertise France

Activity: Carbon footprint tool

Day 3 – Thursday 24 September

Rethinking port activities: feedback and innovations.

Experts

Port of Marseille Fos

Marseille Industrial and Port Zone

Activity: Marseille Industrial Port Area

Day 4 – Friday 25 September

Decarbonising cruising in Marseille: a concrete case for action.

Experts

Jacques Hardelay, President of the Association Marseille Provence Croisière, Honorary President of CNM, Chantier Naval de Marseille

Stéphanie Rissel and Hayria Abdou, Association Marseille Provence Croisière

Activity: Cruise Terminal & Shipyard Visits